

Job Position: Program Mentor

Two-year school-based education service and Leadership Development Program with Scholarship (August 2017 - July2019)

Teach Unlimited Foundation (TUF) is now recruiting our seventh cohort of Program Mentors starting August 2017. We invite high caliber university graduates to make a difference in education and develop their leadership potential by participating in our pioneering and innovative education service integrated in a structured Leadership Development Program.

Under a two-year scholarship scheme, you will be placed full-time in one of our partner schools operating in challenging communities to deliver quality Mentoring and Education Support Programs. There, you will collaborate with the leadership and their key teaching staff and be directly involved in the learning of socially disadvantaged students. Your brief and unique challenge is to inspire and mentor your students to become more confident and motivated learners, orientate them to positive values, and help them aspire and work conscientiously towards a future they either not recognized or once rejected.

Job Descriptions:

- Collaborate with key staff members of the assigned Partner School to deliver TUF mentoring and education programs, monitor progress and measure impact
- Use English as the springboard, develop dynamic and inspiring learning experiences to enhance learning attitudes, self-esteem and motivation of students in small group settings
- Provide one-on-one guidance to students through structured mentorship
- Support personal growth of students and broaden their horizon through co-curricular activities and special projects
- Take active commitment and ownership in TUF Leadership Development Program, as well as personal and professional development

Requirements:

- Bachelor degree or above, in any discipline
- Share the vision of quality education for all
- Have strong commitment to help socially disadvantaged students with learning barriers
- Passionate about teaching and mentorship
- Communicative, love English and good at it
- Willing to take challenge, creative and collaborative
- Have proven leadership and/or community service record (experience with youth will be an advantage)

Compensation and Benefits:

- Two-year progressive and structured Leadership Development
- Two-year full-time placement in TUF's Partner School
- Motivated working environment and supportive colleagues
- Opportunity to work for the betterment of socially disadvantaged students
- Scholarship, annual leave, MPF and medical insurance

Application Documents:

If you share the vision of quality education for all, if you want to become the role model for socially disadvantaged children and give them prospects for a better life through your passion, influence and guidance, please send us:

- 1) Your CV with your academic background and, if available, current and previous social/community involvement, leadership responsibilities and work experience.
- 2) Your views on the following:
 - a. Through your observation or experience - what are the factors responsible for creating the wealth gap in Hong Kong, whereby a significant section of the community is considered to be living below the poverty line?
 - b. How important is the role of education in improving the life prospects, including social and cultural capital of socially disadvantaged students?
 - c. How can you as a university graduate contribute to improving the life prospects of socially disadvantaged students?
- 3) References and/or information that will help us know you better.
